THE DAILY MIRROR

September 23, 19...

KEEN GAMES IN LONDON CHALLENGE CUP.

Chelsea, Still Without a Victory, Fail to Defeat Bromley.

MILLWALL BEAT WEST HAM.

The only surprising result of the eight ties in the first round of the London Challenge Cup yesterday was the following: Millwall 2, West Ham 1, and so win their first game of the season. Both sides scored three times, and the visitors were a stronger side.

The first goal for Millwall came from a pass by Symonds and a cross from Maleoka, the Chelsea goalkeeper, and the second was scored by a fine shot from the outside of the field. The Chelsea forwards were seen to be more effective and they would have scored more had not the Millwall goalkeeper been so good.

NARROW WIN FOR Fulham.

Chelsea and Millwall played a good game, and the latter were leading 2-1 at the half-time, but the former were level at the end of the first half. The former scored again in the second half, and Millwall equalized twice, but Chelsea were the better side and won by 3-2. The Chelsea goalkeeper was in good form, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.

THIRTEEN GOALS AT TOTTENHAM.

The Tottenham Hotspur played a good game and scored 13 goals against their opponents, but they were not able to secure a place in the second round. The Tottenham goalkeeper was good, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.

BROMLEY DRAW WITH CHELSEA.

Chelsea and Millwall played a good game, and the former were leading 2-1 at the half-time, but the latter were level at the end of the first half. The former scored again in the second half, and Millwall equalized twice, but Chelsea were the better side and won by 3-2. The Chelsea goalkeeper was in good form, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.

NARROW WIN FOR Fulham.

Chelsea and Millwall played a good game, and the latter were leading 2-1 at the half-time, but the former were level at the end of the first half. The former scored again in the second half, and Millwall equalized twice, but Chelsea were the better side and won by 3-2. The Chelsea goalkeeper was in good form, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.

BROMLEY DRAW WITH CHELSEA.

Chelsea and Millwall played a good game, and the former were leading 2-1 at the half-time, but the latter were level at the end of the first half. The former scored again in the second half, and Millwall equalized twice, but Chelsea were the better side and won by 3-2. The Chelsea goalkeeper was in good form, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.

THIRTEEN GOALS AT TOTTENHAM.

The Tottenham Hotspur played a good game and scored 13 goals against their opponents, but they were not able to secure a place in the second round. The Tottenham goalkeeper was good, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.

DRAMA AT HIGHLIGHT.

Chelsea and Millwall played a good game, and the former were leading 2-1 at the half-time, but the latter were level at the end of the first half. The former scored again in the second half, and Millwall equalized twice, but Chelsea were the better side and won by 3-2. The Chelsea goalkeeper was in good form, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.

WEST HAM LOSE AT HOME.

Chelsea and Millwall played a good game, and the former were leading 2-1 at the half-time, but the latter were level at the end of the first half. The former scored again in the second half, and Millwall equalized twice, but Chelsea were the better side and won by 3-2. The Chelsea goalkeeper was in good form, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.

CRYSTAL PALACE BEAT CROYDON.

Chelsea and Millwall played a good game, and the former were leading 2-1 at the half-time, but the latter were level at the end of the first half. The former scored again in the second half, and Millwall equalized twice, but Chelsea were the better side and won by 3-2. The Chelsea goalkeeper was in good form, and the Millwall goalkeeper was also good.