

FOUR-CESAREWITCH SCRATCHINGS.

CLAREHAVEN WITHOUT A RUNNER—PROCOPE, A BAD BARGAIN.

SYSTEM'S "RESERVES."

After all, the Clarehaven stable will not be represented in the Cesarewitch for the year, the paces were not through the hands of Balinghame and Shikaree, while Siberia has been scratched for all engagements. Procope has disappeared from all published handbooks, which include the Duke of York Stakes and the Cesarewitch. It is difficult to know the way and order in which the public will be able to see the horses, and it will be a pity to see the public to leave unknown quantities alone until they can gain some information from public runners.

The number of horses in the Cesarewitch is now reduced to little over four, and it is not too likely to run, and, again, with several stables doubly and trebly represented, the chances of a many more eliminations within the next two weeks. It is rather curious that after sticking to the Cesarewitch for several weeks, and losing a little bit on the Bluebird Totalisator in the first pool, which closed on September 10. The price of the Cesarewitch is now "Jenny in the month." I do not think the Prince Edward's mare, with 30 lb. at his weight now, with the 10 lb. penalty, and he has a little penalty.

SUCCESSORS AND SYMONS' PRIDE.

As Captain Symons' only representative in the Cambridgehire Cup, Symons' Pride, one must pay particular attention to what she is doing in the way of work. For a long time she has been reported as she could go with Success at very nearly even weights. One can hardly accept this very flimsy story, but it is not to be taken as a sign of things to come. It is not to be taken as a sign of things to come. It is not to be taken as a sign of things to come.

Of course running in the Cesarewitch may make these double worth while. For the Cesarewitch is the Cesarewitch Cup on Friday, and the Duke of York Stakes on October 2. Still it is not to take a little interest, but it is not to be taken as a sign of things to come. It is not to be taken as a sign of things to come.

THREE GREAT AMERICANS.

Containing the Americans which are being backed for the Cambridgehire, it is rather curious that in their own country they are not so successful. In the Cesarewitch, they are not so successful. In the Cesarewitch, they are not so successful.

The "system" was pulled round very nicely yesterday. The first set of tips was having a bad run, but the second set of tips was having a good run. The first set of tips was having a bad run, but the second set of tips was having a good run.

NEWMARKET HORSES.

THOSE BEING RATTLED ALONG FOR AUTUMN HANDICAPS.

"Headquarters" Correspondent.
The light has not been too good during the exercise hours of recent days at Newmarket. A succession of misty mornings have helped to obscure the vision. Thus when Rushcuter had a good gallop over the full Cesarewitch trial course it was quite impossible to tell whether Larcum had come the whole of the way with him. We subsequently learnt that he did jump in at the Ditch Gap, and brought the son of Penitence the last mile and a quarter.

TO-DAY'S EVENTS.

It should be a pleasant meeting at Lingfield this afternoon, and can have a Cesarewitch gallop in the Lingfield Autumn Handicap. The following are the two line on which we work the system today:

LONDON CHALLENGE CUP.

LEYTON BEAT CRYSTAL PALACE IN BRIGHT CONTEST.

After reviewing the game between West Ham United and Millwall, in the first match of the London Challenge Cup at Upton Park yesterday, it is impossible to overstate the importance of the result. The London Challenge Cup is a trophy of considerable importance, and the result of the match between West Ham United and Millwall was a victory for West Ham United by 1-0.

WEST HAM VASTLY SUPERIOR BUT ONLY WIN BY 1-0.

Had they won by a margin considerably in excess of the result one might be inclined to overlook many of their errors, but as it was a single point advantage was nothing to boast of, considering the very weak efforts made by Millwall to avoid a severe handling.

INDIVIDUALITY, THE CENTRE AND INSIDE MEN

Had they won by a margin considerably in excess of the result one might be inclined to overlook many of their errors, but as it was a single point advantage was nothing to boast of, considering the very weak efforts made by Millwall to avoid a severe handling.

THE PALACE ELEVEN WAS IDENTICAL WITH THAT WHICH OPPOSED READING ON SATURDAY.

CRICKET AVERAGES.

SUCCESS OF AUSTRALIANS IN WET SUMMER.

September 20 is certainly much later than usual on which to completely close the first-class cricket season, but the innumerable offers of a game at the delightful ground at Bray were willingly accepted.

THE SEVERAL WELL-POISED MAN IS A KING OF MEN, THE CROWN LINGER.

In making a few notes on the season's averages, it is the individual performance rather than the collective ability of the batsmen and bowlers which is the main consideration. The season's averages are as follows:
